Baronial Buzz

Greetings to the Barony,

Spring has arrived and the Barony will be busy the next few months.

On April 1st the Barony will be hosting the Kingdom Arts and Sciences Tournament. This is the most prestigious Arts Competition in the Kingdom. This competition is based on how medieval your item is and your documentation is your persuasive essay to justify it. In this competition, a score of 100-120 means that you have made a museum reproduction and are ready to publish a paper. Most of us are not working to that level. We are approaching the medieval and the scores reflect how close the judges think you got. Anything above 70 is fantastic and above 50 is really good. You could have a fantastic embroidered Viking coat that is a piece of great art, but if it is covered in motifs from the 16th century (i.e. NOT Viking Age) it would not do well in this competition. It would be beautiful art, but not medieval art.

The Queen's Prize Tournament will be happening at the same time. This competition is a Queen's Choice competition. It does not require the same level of documentation that the Kingdom Arts and Science does. Her Majesty will interview all the entrants and give the prize to the entry that impressed her the most.

We have 32 people entered in the Kingdom Arts and Sciences and Queen's Prize combined. We have five people from Unser Hafen participating in those competitions: Mistress Safiyya, Mistress Ursula, THL Anne Elizabeth, THL Soren, and milady Dianne. Come out and see the art and cheer them on. His Excellency Nico and Lord Galen will be doing displays of their craft as well.

On the next day (April 2) we will be hosting a Kingdom War practice at the outdoor fighter practice site Dwayne Webster Veterans Park, 401 W 13th St, Loveland, CO 80537. We will be holding a bake sale for the Barony. Please bring a baked item to donate for the sale if you can, or money to buy one. We will also be holding a short Baronial court, so please wear your garb.

On May 7 we will be holding a May Day in the park. There will be a potluck lunch with meat supplied by the Barony, games, dancing and fighting. It will be an extension of our regular Fighter Practice from 12 to 5 PM. Come out and have fun and enjoy the Spring.

In June, the Barony will be sponsoring a "Boar" Hunt at the The Quest for F's in Windkeep.

And at the end of June is Battlemoor. There will be a Baronial Encampment for all those that would like to camp together. Please talk to us if you have any fun ideas of things that you would like to see in the camp. How can we decorate? Do we want to make a gate? How should we set it up? Now is the time to plan.

Given under Our Signet

Freana and Richenda, Baron and Baroness of Unser Hafen

Herald's Call

Greetings dear Unser Hafen! Please join the Office of the Herald in congratulating Don Martín de Çúñiga whose device below has been accepted by the College of Herald's!

On Researching Names: Resources

Researching an SCA appropriate name can be both time consuming and overwhelming if you aren't quite sure where to start. It doesn't help that a lot of modern conceptions of medieval life have been influenced by Victorian aesthetics and culture so one really has to be certain of their sources.

To help with name documentation, there has been quite a wealth of information compiled on various SCA and SCA approved websites. Here are a few places to start that can hopefully make your persona-building process a bit easier.

<http://outlandsheralds.org/resources/> is the primary hub of links from the main Herald's page for the Outlands. Within it you will find a wealth of options, many of which have been validated (sources have been confirmed) by the College of Herald's. One of those links will direct you to <http://heraldry.sca.org/names.html> which has a number of articles documenting various names and can be cited as a source for documentation.

<https://www.s-gabriel.org/> is a website compiled by a group of volunteers who are not SCA heralds but have dedicated a wealth of time and effort to creating a resource for reenactment groups. Their standards are generally stricter than the College of Herald's so their research is regularly accepted through the SCA submission process.

There are also two very handy lists of books - one that shows books with reliable name sources and another that shows books that, unfortunately, can cause delays in your submission.

<http://heraldry.sca.org/admin.html#APPENDIXF> - is a list of books NOT recommended as sources for name documentation. There isn't anything 'wrong' with these publications in general, but they are not documented in a manner necessary for an SCA name submission.

<http://heraldry.sca.org/admin.html#APPENDIXH> - is a list of books, encyclopedias, and websites that are accepted by the SCA College of Heralds, so much so that photocopies are not needed for the information wherein to be accepted.

Remember, any Herald at Large, be it in person or online, can assist with compiling the necessary paperwork to submit your name or device so long as the actual submission is sent in by a warranted Bronial Herald (yours truly, in Unser Hafen's case).

Happy Researching!
