

Events:

Newcomers (Sept.)

- No more surprises!
- Expected Attendees:
 - o Their Majesties
 - o Her Royal Highness
 - o The Baron and Baroness of Unser Hafen
 - o The Baron and Baroness of Caer Galen
 - o The Baron and Baroness of Caerthe
 - o The Baron and Baroness of Dragonsspine (not staying for feast)
- Master Rhys and Mistress Aldyth donated trout and venison for feast– thank them if you see them
- The Newcomers scholarship fund has $80 to help defray the costs
 - o First event, second event, no blue card, active under a year are eligible
- First aid kit will be at gate

Kingdom A&S (Oct.) - report by Miriam

- 57 classes, some more than an hour
- Extra rooms have been procured
- Powwow is going on at the same time (concerned if we would be offended if they are in costumes ☺)
- Rams Keep is hosting (student org) additional insurance forms not required
- Popups have to use weights – no stakes allowed
- University not concerned about the classes, including arrow making
- The floor of one room will be tarped for “messy” classes
- Queens Prize will be in the hallway (estimate of 10 entrants at this time)
- Could use more dancing classes
- Donation based, so charges/fees are $500 for everything
- Need a sturdy table for coin making
- Still need Gate to sign in, waivers
 - o Will use general non-member sign-in waiver to speed up the gate process

Yule (Jan. 2020)

- Will be at Safiyya's
- Potluck
- Safiyya and Nico will provide some meats
- Friday night before Candlemas
- Will likely need a BC

Hosting of Coronation or Crown Tournament Discussion

- Caerthe would like to host Coronation (it will be their 50th anniversary)
- Coronation will be in the spring, Crown in the fall
- Newcomers is in October, which could overlap Crown
- Voted to do Crown, Caerthe to do Coronation
- Tina will talk to Caerthe tomorrow
- It was suggested that Mistress Richenda mentor a new autocrat to oversee the event
 - o Tina has two members in mind and will talk to them
- Food cannot be part of the budget
- CSU has offered a field for free
 - o Shades/pavilions can be staked
- Location would be good push for new student members
