Chronicle of Medieval Festiva Demo

by Vigdis Knarrarbringa

Good gentles all, I am compelled to relay news beginning the 1st of June and ending the 3rd of June. There occurred the Medieval Festival at Savage Woods in our faire Barony. This is the Festival where we highlight what we do to encourage faire goers to join our ranks. Many Scadians from differing baronies/shires were in attendance. Varied facets of the SCA were well represented, introducing themselves to the general populace.

Musicians, scribes, weavers, craftsmen, artisans, and fighters to mention but a few. Demonstrations were given as well as a few impromptu lessons.

Although quite warm and a touch dusty, our tree shaded tents and fighter ring saw much merriment, conversation, and teaching thereby hastening the days' close in a dazzling array of colour and sound. Upon closure of the festival, after a grueling day of fighting, three examples of true chivalry took human form. These gentlemen assisted a vendor pack up who was quite in need. Nothing exemplifies the true timbre of the Scadian people as such an act does. Thank you, Scadians all, for the arts, the fighting, the teaching, and your chivalrous behaviour. It was a most wondrous event which may guide other like-minded gentles to our time out of time.

Message from the Chronicler:

Greetings:

The new month came upon me faster than I realized. My apologies to the Baron and Baroness, the Seneschal and the Herald for not for not getting their items ready to go out with this issue. Next month they will be back with information and amusement.

June was a busy month starting with the Medieval Faire Demo. This is our premier populace recruiting event, plus it helps to maintain the SCA 501-c3 status as a non-profit educational organization. Many thanks to the region for supporting this event, the many fighters and artists, Don Robert and House Corvis for the lovely tent and working with the spectators, to Lord Morgan bringing his hospitaling skills (and his woodworking), and the Barons Caerthe and Caer Galen. Thanks to Lady Ruth for organizing the inkle loom demonstration, and to Mistress Richenda for organizing the wire jewelry instruction (many faire goers made their necklaces with copper adornment and took them home as a token of their time with us) Their were over 50 people supporting this endeavour and so many from our Barony. I cannot thank everyone by name, but thanks to Lord Cornelus and Lord Ulrich for spending so much time with the spectators and recruiting possible members, to Lord Arn and the Gypsies for the Vardo, and to Sir Tracker for all of his wonderful armor displays that attracted so many and his time talking with them.

Mistress Richenda and I spent a lovely June week at Lillies War in Calontir supporting our Queen and having a wonderful (and quite hot) time visiting with old friends and new. Many wonderful classes and tournaments and I got to sail in the Viking Ship Fyrdraka (sp). And then there was the Lillies tradition of fireworks (a professional display)! When you get a chance, do visit other Kingdoms to see what they do, and make new friends. In that vein hopefully we get a report from the Northern Realms War that many from our Barony attended in June.

The month ended with Unser Hafen Champions which we will chronicle next month. Off to Battlemoor.....
